Priority reservations require a $25.00 non-refundable, non-applicable fee payable by cash or personal check to Mill Pond Realty.

The Fine Print: Your priority reservation puts you first in line before other potential guests, but second in line to the property owner. Should either your property or your dates become unavailable for any reason, you will have first choice of open weeks at your first choice property. This priority reservation does not hold the price of the property from the current year and prices are subject to change at the property owner's request. The priority reservation fee cannot be refunded at any time for any reason.

*Thank you for using our priority reservation service.
We look forward to seeing you next year ... or even sooner!*
